NOTICE OF HEARING AND MOTION TO LIMIT NOTICE

TO: ALL PARTIES IN INTEREST AS SPECIFIED UNDER

1. Oakridge Holdings, Inc., one of the above-named Debtors (“Debtor”) moves this Court for the relief requested below and gives notice of hearing herewith.

2. Notice is Given that as set forth below, the Debtor is seeking to limit notice to the equity security holders of the upcoming hearing on confirmation. The Court will hold a hearing on this Motion before The Honorable Kathleen H. Sanberg, Chief Judge of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, on Wednesday, June 6, 2018 at 10:30 a.m. or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard in Courtroom 8W, United States Courthouse, 300 4th St. S., Minneapolis Minnesota 55415. THE

HEARING MAY BE CONTINUED BY THE COURT AT THE TIME OF HEARING WITHOUT ADDITIONAL NOTICE

3. Pursuant Local Rule 9006-1(c) any response related to issues to be considered at the Final Hearing must be filed and delivered not later than five (5) days before the time set for the Final Hearing, to wit: Friday, June 1, 2018. UNLESS A RESPONSE OPPOSING THE MOTION IS TIMELY FILED, THE COURT MAY GRANT THE MOTION WITHOUT A HEARING.

4. The Court has jurisdiction over this motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, Bankruptcy Rule 5005 and Local Rule 1070-1. Venue of this case and the Motion are proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This is a core proceeding. The petition commencing this Chapter 11 case was filed on May 22, 2017 (the “Petition Date”). The case is now pending in this Court.

5. The Motion arises under 11 USC §1129, Rule 2002(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure Local Rule 3017-1(b) and other applicable Local Rules as set forth in this motion and the accompanying Memorandum of Law. The Motion is filed under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and Local Rules 9013-1 through 9013-3.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6. On the Petition Date, Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Minnesota (the “Court”).

7. Debtor continues to manage its estate as debtor-in-possession pursuant to §§ 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. An Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors has not yet been appointed in Debtor’s Chapter 11 case and the US Trustee filed a notice indicating that they have been unable to form such a committee.

9. On May 26, 2017 the Court entered an order Jointly administering Stinar, HG, Inc. and its parent, Oakridge Holdings, Inc. (“Oakridge”) [Docket 27].

10. On April 16, 2018, Oakridge file a Plan of Reorganization [Docket 88] and a Disclosure Statement [Docket 89].

11. On April 17, 2018, The Court set June 6, 2018 as the hearing date on the approval on the adequacy of the disclosure statement [Docket 90]. The order provided that the Debtor should, among other things, provide notice of the hearing on the disclosure statement to all equity security holders and provide information to allow any equity securities holders to obtain a copy of the plan and disclosure statement from the debtor.

12. On April 17, 2018, Debtor's counsel set up a webpage with copies of the plan and disclosure statement at: <http://sapientialaw.com/for-creditors-and-shareholders-of-stinar-hg-inc-and-oakridge-holdings-inc/>. Only equity security holders of the Debtor were given notice of this webpage.

13. On April 20, 2018, copies of the plan, the disclosure statement and the notice of the hearing on the adequacy of the disclosure statement were served upon the Local Rule 9013-1 service list (see certificate of service at Docket 97).

14. On May 2, 2018 the Debtor mailed copies of the Court's April 17, 2018 order on all of the 1,117 equity security holders of the Debtor. Also enclosed was the cover letter attached to the accompanying memorandum of law as Exhibit A that gave notice of the ability of the equity security holders to contact counsel for the Debtor and obtain a copy of the plan and disclosure statement, gave notice of the website where the equity security holder could view the plan disclosure statement and noted that the instant motion would also be posted at the same page when it was filed. The certificate of service for the notice is at Docket 96.

15. Since the notice to equity shareholders went out on May 2, there have been no requests from any equity security holder requesting copies of the plan or the disclosure statement. The outsourced IT department for Sapiaientia Law Group reports that there have been only 4 “hits” on the website identified above since the mailing to the equity security holders went out on May 2.

16. Debtor During the past twenty years, a maximum of three shareholders have attended the annual meeting of the debtor. Many years no shareholders have attended. The company has been publicly traded since 1961 and is thinly traded. The Debtor believes that many of the shareholders listed on the current shareholder list are deceased.

17. Debtor’s Counsel has prepared a mock mailing consisting of the plan, the disclosure statement, a form of ballot, the notice of the confirmation hearing, a certificate of service and a letter from the Debtor requesting approval of the plan (“The Balloting Package”) in anticipation of the balloting on the plan after the adequacy of the disclosure statement is approved. That package, even when printed on both sides, would weigh at least 9 ounces and would cost $2.68 to mail via first class mail. Mailing the Balloting Package to the 1,117 separate equity security holders would cost the debtor $2,993.56 just in postage, not including the cost for reproducing approximately 50 pages at .25/page which would be an additional $12.50 per copy or $13,962.50, for a total cost to the debtor to mail the Balloting Package to all equity security holders of approximately $18,000.00.

18. The plan provides pursuant to 11 USC §§ 1141(d)(1)(B) that all equity security holder's interests will be extinguished. As such, the plan provides that the class of equity security holders (Class III) shall be deemed to reject the plan.

19. Rule 2002(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Local Rule 2002-1(b)(3) require the clerk or such person as designated by the clerk to serve notice of the plan confirmation hearing on the equity security holders unless the Court orders otherwise.

20. Since no purpose would be served by mailing equity security holders the Balloting Package, and since the cost of doing so is nearly $18,000, the debtor believes that cause exists for the Court to order that no Balloting Package be mailed to any equity security holder.

SUMMARY OF RELIEF SOUGHT

21. Debtor seeks an order of the court excusing the Debtor from mailing the Balloting Package to any equity security holder of the Debtor.

CONCLUSION

22. Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-2(c), Debtor states that should testimony be necessary, Debtor reserves the right to call the following witnesses:

- a. Robert Harvey, President Debtor;
- b. Christopher “CT” Thorpe, proposed President for Stinar HG, Inc., the proposed remaining company after reorganization.
- c. Other employees or agents of the Debtor as appropriate;
and
- d. Other witnesses as deemed necessary.

23. This Motion is accompanied by a memorandum of law, proposed order, and proof of service pursuant to Local Rule 9013-2(a).

WHEREFORE, Debtor respectfully requests that this Court enter an order:

- a. Substantially in the form of the attached proposed order;

- b. Granting such other and additional relief as the Court deems just and appropriate.

DEBTOR'S MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO LIMIT NOTICE

INTRODUCTION

The debtor, Oakridge Holdings, Inc. (“Oakridge” or “Debtor”) has filed a plan of reorganization and hopes for a speedy confirmation hearing after the adequacy of the disclosure statement is affirmed by the Court. The Debtor has a liquidating plan on file. The plan provides for payment off all priority debts and approximately 50% of unsecured debts. The funds for these payments are coming from Oakridge’s wholly-owned subsidiary, co-debtor Stinar HG, Inc. Stinar has been a success story in Chapter 11 and is now profitable. Stinar is only able to pay the debts of the Debtor because it received DIP funding early in the case from Kruckeberg Industries LLC. The plan filed by the Debtor provides that, because of the absolute priority rule, all equity security holder's interests will be terminated. [Docket 88 at page 10.] There are 1,117 separate equity security holders. They do not need to vote on the plan as their class of interests (Class III) will be deemed to reject the plan per 11 U.S.C. § 1126(g).

The Debtor has been a publicly traded company for nearly 60 years. Oakridge has had minimal trading in its stock for many years. During the past 20 annual shareholder meetings, a maximum of three shareholders have attended those meetings and, during several years, no shareholders other than officers have attended. The shareholders have been provided notice of the hearing on the approval of the adequacy of the disclosure statement, set concurrently with this motion, however, the website set up to provide a copy of the plan and disclosure statement to any equity security holders interested in the plan has only had 4 "hits" since the notice of the disclosure statement hearing was sent out on May 2. In addition, counsel for the Debtor has not had any requests from any shareholder for copies of the plan or disclosure statement. Finally, if the Debtor has to mail copies of the disclosure statement and plan and other materials ("Balloting Package”) to the 1,117 shareholders, the company will have to spend approximately $18,000 on copying and postage costs.

ARGUMENT

1. NO PURPOSE IS SERVED BY FORCING THE DEBTOR TO SPEND $18,000 TO PROVIDE CONFIRMATION HEARING INFORMATION AND BALLOTS TO SHAREHOLDERS WHO ARE DEEMED TO HAVE REJECTED THE PLAN

Rule 2002(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure provides:

d) NOTICE TO EQUITY SECURITY HOLDERS. In a chapter 11 reorganization case, unless otherwise ordered by the court, the clerk, or some other person as the court may direct, shall in the manner and form directed by the court give notice to all equity security holders of (1) the order for relief; (2) any meeting of equity security holders held pursuant to §341 of the Code; (3) the hearing on the proposed sale of all or substantially all of the debtor's assets; (4) the hearing on the dismissal or conversion of a case to another chapter; (5) the time fixed for filing objections to and the hearing to consider approval of a disclosure statement; (6) the time fixed for filing objections to and the hearing to consider confirmation of a plan; and (7) the time fixed to accept or reject a proposed modification of a plan.

(Emphasis added).

The Advisory Committee Note for Rule 2002 (1983) also indicates the permissive nature of notice to equity security holders and indicates when the court may properly limit notice. They wrote:

Subdivision (d) relates exclusively to the notices given to equity security holders in chapter 11 cases. Under chapter 11, a plan may impair the interests of the debtor's shareholders or a plan may be a relatively simple restructuring of unsecured debt. In some cases, it is necessary that equity security holders receive various notices and in other cases there is no purpose to be served. This subdivision indicates that the court is not mandated to order notices but rather that the matter should be treated with some flexibility. The court may decide whether notice is to be given and how it is to be given.

See, In re Woodhaven, Ltd., 139 B.R. 745, 750 (Bankr. N.D. Ala. 1992).

Further, equity security holders of companies with more than 100 shareholders are already receiving limited notices in this district.

Local Rule 1007-2 provides for this limit:

Rule 1007-2. Mailing - List or Matrix

(a) MATRIX. The debtor shall file with the petition a list of creditors containing the names and addresses of the debtor, the debtor's attorney and all creditors in matrix form in accordance with the clerk's instructions.

(b) EQUITY SECURITY HOLDERS IN CHAPTER 11 CASES. Unless ordered otherwise, if there are more than 100 equity security holders in a chapter 11 case, the debtor shall not file a list of the debtor's equity security holders; otherwise the debtor shall file a list and supplemental matrix containing the names and addresses of the debtor's equity security holders.

Since most notices and motions are only served upon those entities in the Local Rule 9013-3 service list, (Local Rule 2002-1(b)(2)) this district has already dispensed with sending notices of the beginning of the case and most motions on any corporation with more than 100 shareholders. There is a cost-benefit analysis being used that is appropriate under Rule 2002(d) in connection with notice to shareholders. In this case, cause exists for limiting notice to the other classes of creditors who will be receiving a return on their interest and who, therefore have a need to vote on the plan.

2. THIS COURT HAS THE AUTHORITY UNDER RULE 2002(d) AND APPLICABLE LOCAL RULES TO LIMIT NOTICE TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

Although Local Rule 2002-1(b)(3) provides that “all notices under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002(d) shall be mailed to each equity security holder”, the local rule cannot be interpreted to change the actual terms of Rule 2002(d) which itself provides that the court can limit notice when appropriate. In re Falk, 96 B.R. 901, 904 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1989). Further, Local Rule 3017-1(b) preserves the right of the Court under Rule 2002(d) to order limited notice of approved plans and disclosure statements.

3017-1(b) SERVICE OF APPROVED DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS AND PLANS.

Unless ordered otherwise, in a chapter 11 case the proponent shall serve the following documents on all creditors, equity security holders and other parties in interest as provided in Local Rule 2002-1(b) and file proof of such service: 1) the order for a confirmation hearing; 2) the approved disclosure statement; 3) the plan; and 4) the approved official form ballot.

(Emphasis added.)

When the local rules are all read in harmony with each other and Rule 2002(d), it is clear that this Court has the power to limit notice to the equity security holders and, given the circumstances of this case, that it should do so.

CONCLUSION

No purpose will be served by forcing the costly mailing of 1,117 packages to shareholders who have shown little interest in the company over the years, have, when provided notice of this case, not even reviewed the plan and, most importantly, will not be adversely affected if they have no chance to vote on the plan since they will be deemed by 11 U.S.C. § 11216(g) to have rejected the plan.

Therefore, the Debtor requests that the Court order that the equity security holders receive no balloting information nor notice of the motion for confirmation of the plan.
